Come, Ye Thankful People, Come

Come ye thankful people come,
Raise the song of harvest-home!
All be safely gathered in,
Ere the winter storms begin;
God our Maker, doth provide
For our wants to be supplied;
Come to God's own temple, come;
Raise the song of harvest-home.

All this world is God's own field,
Fruit unto his praise to yield;
Wheat and tares together sown,
Unto joy or sorrow grown;
First the blade and then the ear,
Then the full corn shall appear;
Lord of Harvest, grant that we
Wholesome grain and pure may be.

For the lord our God shall come,
And shall take his harvest-home;
From His field shall purge away,
All that doth offend to-day;
Give his angels charge at last
In the fire the tares to cast,
But the fruitful wheat to store
In his barn for evermore.

In The Bleak Mid-Winter

In the bleak mid-winter, Frosty wind made moan
Earth stood hard as iron, Water like a stone;
Snow had fallen, snow on snow, snow on snow
In the bleak mid-winter, long ago.

Our God, heaven cannot hold Him, nor earth sustain
Heaven and earth shall flee away, when He comes to reign
In the bleak mid-winter a stable-place sufficed
The Lord God Almighty, Jesus Christ.

What can I give Him, Poor as I am?
If I were a Shepherd I would bring a lamb;
If I were a Wise Man I would do my part,
Yet what I can I give Him, Give my heart.

Harlow Singers are a SATB choir who rehearse on Mondays during term-time from 7.30 pm to 9.00 pm in the Vestry Room in St John's Arts and Recreation Centre, Old Harlow, CM17 0AJ.

You do not need to read music, there is no audition process and we offer taster sessions to anyone interested in joining the choir. We sing a mixture of music ranging from sacred to folk songs and from sea shanties to operettas. Our aims are to have fun and put on a concert for friends and family at the end of each term.

Our Musical Director is Sara Stowe. Sara grew up in Harlow and fell in love with music here. She went on to be trained at the Royal College of Music and is an accomplished professional musician. She has been leading us since 2021.
